

Learn (Choose one activity)

- Attend a house dedication
- Read part or all of Nickel and Dimed, On (Not) Getting By in America by Barbara Ehrenreich
- Read on of the children's books produced by Habitat International: Grandpa's Hammer, Raising the Roof, Doorway to the World of Building Friends
- Read a recent edition of Habitat International's publication, Habitat World
- Learn about how Habitat builds in other countries
- Visit the Global Village Center of Habitat headquarters in Americus, Georgia
- Visit www.raisethefloor.org to learn about surviving on minimum wage income

Act (Choose two activities)

- Purchase a "Building a Better World Youth Activity Set" at www.habitatgiftshop.com
- Volunteer at the Habitat ReStore (for 14 & 15 year olds with adult supervision)*
- Lead a devotion at the job site*
- Interview a volunteer or homeowner for an article for our website*
- Provide lunch or a snack for the volunteers on a job site*
- Draw greeting cards for us to use to thank donors and volunteers*
- Visit a site and write a message to the homeowner
- Construct a small project like a bird house, window box, tool box, etc. to sell at the Restore (for plans visit www.sgvhabitat.org/plans)^
- Hold a bake sale at church to raise money for Habitat ^
- Make table decorations for our Volunteer Recognition Reception (around May)*
- Help set up, serve, and clean up during our Volunteer Recognition Reception (around May)*
- Make announcements in your church when volunteers are needed
- Challenge your family/friends to collect change to use to help build a home^
- Create your dream house out of legos or other building blocks, then take a picture^

* Call Before to 626-387-6899 ext. 18 or email youthprograms@sgvhabitat.org to schedule

^ Call After to 626-387-6899 ext. 18 or email youthprograms@sgvhabitat.org for info on turning in items

Reflect (Choose one activity)

- Create a picture through photography, painting, drawing, etc.
- Write an essay or story about your Habitat experience
- Write an essay or story about "What Home Means to You"

Celebrate!

Turn in your "I did it!" form along with any artwork, stories, or essays you created. We will add your contributions to our website and send you your "Building on Youth" certificate to you. Please note that only first name and last initial will be used on the website to preserve privacy of participants. Items will be returned if sent with a self addressed, stamped envelope.